Changsha National High-Tech Industrial Development Zone (CHTIDZ) was established in 1988 by the State Government as one of the first modern industry zones in China. So far over a thousand high-tech enterprises have set up in CHTIDZ including 200 joint ventures with foreign investment. In the year of 2008, the total revenue of CHTIDZ reached 1120 Billion RMB (US$184 Billion).

“Luvalley” (麓谷, a “Valley” under “Lu” mountain,) is the core hi-tech industry park of CHTIDZ that covers a vast area of 100 km². Luvalley is located advantageously on the west bank of Xiang River (湘江) and north of Yuelu Mountain (岳麓山) with easy access to several major national transportation arterials, including Beijing-Zhuhai Freeway, Shanghai-Ruilu Freeway, Xiaman-Chengdu Freeway 319 and Beijing-Shenzhen Freeway 107. Luvalley is designed as a comprehensive “energy-saving and eco-friendly Park”. So far infrastructure and buildings of 20% of the park have been completed.

Luvalley is designated to be the center of biotechnology and pharmaceuticals industry inside CHTIDZ. Companies such as Jiuzhitang, Double Crane, Hulin Stem Cells, Longping Hi-Tech, Zhonghe Pharm, Fengshen Pharm, An-Chun Hi-tech, Jinsha Pharm have already built their R&D and manufacturing facilities in the Park. Over 30 companies in the zone are in the leading position in their fields in China or internationally and over 20 companies are publically traded, listing in domestic or foreign Stock Exchange markets.

We warmly welcome you to start up your biotechnology and pharmaceutical business in Luvalley. Here, you will receive first-class services and strong support. This is our promise and commitment to you.
